

City of Grover Beach

POLICE LIEUTENANT

Salary: $5,672 - $6,895/month plus benefit package including: Local Safety PERS 2% at 50 with one year final compensation and military buy-back available; City-paid medical, dental, vision, and life; deferred compensation match; education allowance; uniform allowance.

Join the City's management team while enjoying the spectacular beauty and small-town (population 13,100+) lifestyle of California's Central Coast. This opening not only offers a great opportunity for highly motivated up-&-comers, but can also serve as a second retirement opportunity for those retired or planning to retire from a non-PERS agency.

Stretch your management, leadership, and analytical skills! In addition to managing a Division of the Department (two Lieutenants rotate assignments between Administration/Support Services and Operations/Patrol), this position provides strong managerial support to the Police Chief on policy issues, serves in a leadership capacity within the Department and community, and works closely with both sworn and non-sworn staff in maintaining high departmental morale.

Top candidate/s will possess: Three years of increasingly responsible law enforcement experience as a Sergeant; a BA/BS in criminal justice, police science, public administration, or a related field; and valid POST Supervisory and Advanced Certificates. A POST Management Certificate and bilingual capabilities are desirable but not required. To be considered for this opportunity, please submit cover letter, résumé, fully completed and signed City application, and proof of current standing such as copies of relevant certifications (faxes, postmarks, and e-mails not accepted).

APPLY BY: 5:00 pm, Monday, April 10, 2006 (deadline may be extended at the discretion of the City). For required City application and detailed job flyer please contact Human Resources, Grover Beach City Hall, 154 South 8th Street, Grover Beach, CA 93433; visit City website www.grover.org; or phone (805) 473-4564. An EEO/AA Employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.
